

VIII. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Without the cooperation and assistance of shrimp fishermen throughout the Galveston Bay area, this research effort could not have been undertaken. Their names are not listed here to maintain their confidentiality. However, it is through their participation that we have been able to complete a successful investigation.

R. Elizondo, F. Garcia, T. Johnstone, E. Klima, B. Morrow and C. Thompson of the National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS) provided administrative support. Sorting and processing of bycatch samples at the NMFS laboratory was completed with the assistance of: T. Barcak, R. Burditt, M. Chapman, L. Claiborne, G. Conley, M. Daniels, S. Evans, Q. Forrest, G. Gana, J. Gatzcke, A. Goldberg, K. Goss, M. Grose, K. Hammerstrom, B. Higgins, H. Hoover, S. Hussong, K. Jurus, J. Kelly, D. LeDeaux, T. Marcinko, G. McMahan, M. C. Patillo, S. Tarr, J. Tobias, K. Torralva, T. Wheeler, A. Williams, J. Williams and M. Van. Assistance with computer data entry, programming and analysis were provided by E. Garcia, D. Koi, J. Malik and F. Patella. Data from Texas Parks and Wildlife Department (TPWD) fishery independent surveys was obtained with the assistance of L. Benefield, B. Bowling, A. Green, G. McCarty, L. McEachron and R. Rayburn.

Other assistance was provided by N. Baxter, G. Gitschlag, M. Renaud, E. Scott-Denton, P. Sheridan and R. Zimmerman of NMFS; J. Massey and M. Russell of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service-Marine Advisory Service; C. Covert and H. Gonzalez of TPWD-Enforcement; J. Hillman, D. Reynolds and L. Thai. We would also like to thank the members of our Industry Advisory Panel, Mr. C. L. Standley, Mr. Tom Hults and Mr. Terry Snider, for reviewing and assisting with the sampling design and methodologies, enlisting fishermen to participate in this study and reviewing draft copies of quarterly and final reports. Various individuals within the Galveston Bay National Estuary Program (GBNEP), NMFS, TPWD, Texas Water Commission (TWC) and Environmental Protection Agency (U.S. EPA) reviewed quarterly project reports. D. Adams, K.N. Baxter, L. Benefield, A. Green, L. McEachron, D. Reynolds, P. Sheridan, K. Teague, and M. Wagner review the manuscript for the final report and provided valuable comment and suggestions. Partial funding for new sampling efforts was provided by the U.S. EPA and the TWC (contract # 190000003) through the GBNEP.

